BRYAN BEGINS HIS TOUR OF INDIANA

Great Crowds and Much Enthusiasm Mark Progress Through State.

IS IN SOUTHERN PART

Quotes Beveridge and President on Democratic Doctrine—Many Towns Visited.

Indianapolis, Oct. 22.—William Jennings Bryan began a three days' speaking tour of Indiana today. The first speech was made at Brazil. Mr. Bryan reached Terre Haute at 5:40 a. m. and was met by W. H. O'Brien, chairman of the democratic state committee, and a number of other politicians. Brazil was reached at 6:15 by the special train on which Mr. Bryan is traveling. After breakfast at a hotel Mr. Bryan spoke at the Coliseum.

The meeting at Terre Haute was a very enthusiastic one. The platform was erected close to the baggage room and from that Mr. Bryan made his speech. At Terre Haute a delegation of twenty from Sullivan met Mr. Bryan and before they had finished shaking hands with him, Alvin Padgett, of Washington, chairman of the Second district, and an escort of forty democrats from different parts of the district arrived.

Is Not a Candidate.

Mr. Bryan talked almost thirty minutes at Terre Haute. He said:

"I am here in Indiana not as a candidate for office, for I have insisted that it is too early to know who ought to be nominated by either party. Nominees ought to fit the platform, and platforms are made to fit conditions, and each party is entitled to all the light that circumstances can throw upon the situation and while I have been indorsed by a good many states, I have told them in advance that I would not bring a breach of promise suit against any of them if they went back on their promises and supported some one else; that I would not show the letters I have been receiving from them.

"But I am here, my friends, in the interest of those who are candidates and the election this year is just now of much more importance than the election two years from now. For this year we hope to lay the foundation for a success two years hence that will be in sympathy with reform and we hope to carry this state in order that we may have the assurance that two years from now Indiana will be on the side of the battle that is being fought against predatory wealth."

Mr. Bryan discussed the government ownership question and the prosperous condition of the country.

Gets Back at Beveridge.

Mr. Bryan devoted a part of his Terre Haute speech to answering Senator Beveridge. He said:

"Ten years ago when I was in this state I remember I had to combat one of Senator Beveridge's arguments. He stated that the amount of coffee we had been consuming in the United States was evidence of the prosperity of the laboring man. I read a speech he made Saturday and he did not mention the coffee pot. He did not mention the prosperity of the laboring man, but he did mention the fortunes of the men who have been plundering the people of this country and he said it would have to come to an inheritance tax and possibly to an income tax. You don't know how good I feel. Why, when I used to advocate an income tax, they said I was a demagogue; that I was trying to scrape up class hatred; that I was envious of the rich. President Roosevelt says the men who have the swollen fortunes must disgorge. I hope there is not anybody in this country whose feelings will be hurt when the president says 'disgorge.' None of you men have made so much money under the republican rule that your fortune is dangerous to society.

No Farmers Are Gorging.

"Any farmers who have been gorging? Any laboring man who has been gorging? The republican party asks to be returned to power on its record. What is its record? Ten years of republican power and it has not stamped in one single republican idea. Ten years of republican triumph and not one republican principle strengthened. While the democratic party has been out of power for ten years and it has fathered so much power that it has been enabled to coerce a republican president into adopting its principles.

"One trouble with the republicans is that they don't dare to lay the ax to the root of the tree. The republicans say 'regulate the trusts;' the democrats say 'annihilate them.' There is only one remedy. The application of old time principles."

Mr. Bryan concluded his speech at Terre Haute with laudatory remarks with reference to Claude Bowers, candidate for congress, and said that if the people wanted to heed the cry of the republicans to elect men to stand by President Roosevelt, why not elect Mr. Bowers. He knew Mr. Bowers would stand more for the president than any republican they might elect.

Talks of Republican Claims.

The meeting at Sullivan was enthusiastic and attracted a great crowd. Mr. Bryan was introduced by Fred Bays. Mr. Bryan said the republican party had not satisfied the laboring men or the farmers, but it was claiming credit for everything, including big crops. He said the very articles the republicans were protecting with their tariff were sold abroad cheaper than they are sold in this country.

WANTED TO LYNCH THE WIFE BURNER

JOHN DORAN HAD TRIED TO CREMATE MRS. DORAN.

Saturated Her With Oil and Set Her on Fire—Cool Officer Prevented Mob's Work.

Pittsburg, Oct. 22.—John Doran, arrested at Wilkinsburg, a suburb, yesterday charged with attempting to cremate his wife, narrowly escaped lynching today at the hands of an enraged mob of neighbors. As Doran was being removed from the lockup to the office of Justice of the Peace J. J. Walker for a hearing, a crowd of more than 100 people gathered about the office and attempted to take the prisoner. Chief of Police James R. Doran, who is no relative, addressed the crowd and besought them to allow the man to have a fair trial and informing them that the case against the man was complete. He deprecated lynch law and as a result of his pleadings, the man was allowed to be taken to Judge Walker's office, where he was given a hearing and held for court, being sent to jail without bail.

Mrs. Doran is in the hospital in a critical condition.

Screaming wiwth pain and terror, with her clothing ablaze, Mrs. Doran rushed from her home into the street in Wilkensburgyesterday, and ofter a policeman had extinguished the flames she was taken to a hospital in a critical condition, where she told the story of her husband's cruelty, charging him with deliberately attempting to burn her alive. According to Mrs. Doran her husband had been drinking and when he came home he began to abuse her. She says that Doran hurled a lighted lamp at her and then knocked her down. Then she declared, he seized a towel which had ignited from the broken lamp and deliberately set her clothing on fire. Her statements are substantiated by a 13-year-old daughter who witnessed the father's cruelty. Mrs. Doran's hair was burned to the scalp and her clothing above the waist was burned off, scorching the skin in a frightful manner.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED.

Actress Found Dead in Chicago Thought to Have Been Murdered.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Several days ago the body of Mrs. Margaret Leslie, an actress, was found dead in a room in the Palace hotel. It was considered at the time to be a case of suicide, and the coroner at the conclusion of the inquest so reported. Lately several features of the case have thrown doubt on the suicide theory, and the police have been investigating to see of the woman was murdered. Today the coroner's physician, after an exhaustive examination, declared that the woman was probably strangled to death. There is no present clue to the murderer.

The wagon was heavily loaded with barrel staves and as Miller attempted to turn out of the street car tracks his wagon first slid for some distance along the rails and then overturned, while Miller jumped to avoid being crushed by the heavy load. He alighted heavily upon the brick pavement, and bystanders picked up the injured man and carried him into the Stouder hardware store. Later he was removed in an ambulance to his boarding place at 312 Montgomery street, where medical attention was given him. Miller's home is at Hicksville, Ohio. He will recover without difficulty.

EX-UNITED STATES SENATOR IN JAIL

BURTON, OF KANSAS, BEGINS HIS SENTENCE.

Convicted Statesman Journeys to Ironton, Mo., to Do Time for Violating the Law.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—Former United States Senator J. R. Burton, of Kansas, accompanied by his wife and niece, arrived here this morning from his home at Abilene and surrendered himself to begin serving his sentence of six months in the Ironton, Mo., jail. Apparently he has changed little since he was tried and convicted a year ago in the federal court here of having accepted $2,500 for services rendered the Rialto Grain and Securities company, of St. Louis, before the postoffice department at Washington in a fraud order proceeding.

As he stepped from the train this morning he said:

"I am feeling very well, exceedingly well under the circumstances. Perhaps the trees, the bluffs and nature generally look sweeter to me today than they shall for some time, but I don't let myself think about that. I expect to go to Ironton today and begin the life that is laid out for me."

BURTON OFF FOR PRISON.

Friends of Convicted Ex-Senator Give Him Affectionate Farewell.

Abilene, Kan., Oct. 22.—That sorrow or trouble tend to make men brothers was proved here yesterday when ex-Senator Joseph Ralph Burton, adjudged a criminal by the highest court in the land, left for Ironton, Mo., where he will serve six months in prison to satisfy the demands of law. This morning he will surrender to the district court, prepared to go to prison. He was accompanied by Mrs. Burton and their adopted daughter, who will take up their residence in Ironton during Mr. Burton's incarceration. Saturday many persons called at the Burton home and in the evening a dozen were present at a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton left at 1 p. m. yesterday. The train was an hour late, and during this time probably a hundred persons called to bid them goodby. There was no demonstration, neither were there tears. Mr. Burton amused the men with political incidents and Mrs. Burton was the center of a group of women.

Men who have opposed Burton politically for years now speak kindly of him. All say that when he returns Abilene will extend a friendly hand and forget or leave unspoken the past.

PLAN FOR PANAMA TRIP.

Warships to Form Escort for the President.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—Official notice has been posted at League Island navy yard to the effect that the cruiser Washington will leave on or about November 1 for Hampton Roads. The Tennessee, it is expected, will pass out a couple of days later and the two warships will act as escort for President Roosevelt on his trip to Panama.

The president has selected the new battleship Louisiana for his flagship during the voyage. His plan now is to go aboard the Louisiana at New York on November 8 and to join the convoy at Hampton Roads. It is possible, however, that he will go down the Potomac on the yacht Dolphin and meet the Louisiana.

The trip will require about six days each way. The sailors and marines on the Washington and Tennessee are elated at having been chosen as the president's escort. The two vessels are the newest and among the finest cruisers in the navy. Neither ship has her full complement of men, but when the Minneapolis and Brooklyn arrive from Havana part of their crews will be transferred.

A farewell ball given by the officers and men of the Tennessee will take place tomorrow night. Four hundred invitations have been issued, and guests will be present from as far distant as Tennessee.

MAKE REPORT ON LIFE INSURANCE

Investigation Committee of Indiana Finds Conditions Rather Bad.

RATES ARE TOO HIGH

Loose Methods, Extravagance and Big Salaries—Legislation Will Be Asked.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—The committee which has been for a year investigating conditions in the office of auditor of state, today placed its report on life insurance in the hands of the governor. The general conclusions of the committee are these:

The cost of life insurance to the public is too high. The present premium rates for insurance are so much in excess of needs as to permit of extravagant management of companies, theft of the funds, diversion of profits and other great abuses without rendering the companies insolvent. Indiana insurance companies, like many companies of other states, have been guilty of extravagances and abuses, though they have maintained solvency. There is no real difference in essentials between the insurance business and any other business and no reason why it should not be conducted on a sound, economical basis, according to definite principles. Indiana should not seek to protect home companies that are guilty of abuses, but should have stricter laws and a better supported insurance department, foster insurance on a sound basis and bring to this state business that has been going to companies of other states.

DIED OF OPERATION.

Indianapolis, Oct. 22.—John C. Simering, of Baltimore, Md., died today at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth A. PARIS FEELS EASY.

French Bank Not Likely to Raise Discount Rate.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The leading French financiers are keenly watching the monetary situation abroad. The position of Paris is fairly good and the prevailing impression is that the bank of France will not hurt French interests by raising its discount rate. At the same time while it is considered possible that the bank of France might make a moderate loan of gold to the bank of England to relieve the conditions there, it would, it is asserted, resist withdrawals of gold for America. A prominent international banker expressed the opinion to the Associated Press today that the United States would not get much more gold here, as the bank would block any attempts in that direction, not by raising the discount rate, but by exercising its option to pay in silver. The banker said that he had expressed the view of French bankers in saying the United States had sufficient funds for the legitimate requirements of trade and that there was no reason why Europe should help to finance the speculative movement in New York.

MEN BLOWN OUT TO SEA ARE RESCUED

SIX CARRIED AWAY BY HURRICANE PICKED UP.

Thursday Storm Hit Honduras Hard and Did Much Damage—Thrilling Story of Disaster.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 22.—Six men who were blown out to sea off the Florida coast during the recent hurricane were picked up by the Mallory liner Colorado and brought in here this afternoon.

HONDURAS STORM SWEPT.

Hurricane Wrought Immense Damage at Many Points.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 22.—The first news of a terrible West Indian hurricanse that visited the towns of Ruatan, Tela, Utilla, Colorado and El Provence, Honduras, on October 12, was brought here last night by the Norwegian steamer Herald, with a cargo of fruit. A number of vessels were wrecked, several destroyed, and buildings in each of the towns mentioned badly damaged. The loss to the owners of the fruit plantations will reach almost a million dollars. The British schooner Southern Queen was thrown on the beach at Ruatan and went to pieces in less than an hour's time, and the Herald suffered somewhat and will have to be docked.

A tidal wave accompanied the hurricane and swept everything before it. Captain Henrichsen reports that when he left the beaches were strewn with vessels of all kinds, including three large sailing vessels. Ten thousand bunches of bananas were reported swept into the sea at Ruatan. The officers of the steamer say it will be a month before some of the steamers will be able to get any fruit.

101 MEN SWEPT TO DEATH.

Only 49 Escape of 150 on Barge Swamped in Storm.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 22.—Survivors from one of the houseboats along the keys tell a thrilling story of death and destruction caused by the storm of Thursday.

W. P. Dusenberry, civil engineer, in charge of the work on Long Key, who miraculously escaped death, arrived here on the Russian steamer Jennie, with other survivors, says one houseboat, on which were 150 men, was struck by the storm at 5 o'clock Thursday morning and was driven out into the gulf. At 6 o'clock the houseboat began to break up, and the men, singly and in groups of two and three, were washed into the sea and drowned.

Some went below for protection, but when the top of the boat was carried away the waves rushed in, and the boat soon went to pieces, 30 or 40 of the men being crushed to death in the collapse, the others grabbing timbers to save them from drowning. Engineer Dusonberry was in the hold, but succeeded in getting a log and floated until Friday night.

Men Washed to Death.

On one piece of timber sixteen men were clinging and nine were hanging to another. The sides of the houseboat were crowded with men. It turned over three times, each time reducing the number.

The Russian steamer Jennie sighted the wreckage and succeeded in rescuing the forty-nine men who were brought here. Three other steamers with searchlights were picking up dead and alive men when the Jennie left the scene.

There was another houseboat with 150 men on board at Long Key, which Mr. Dusenberry thinks was also swept to sea. There were in all ten boats at Long Key, mortar mixers, dredges, and other boats engaged in the work.

The survivors were furnished food and clothing from the East Coast railway commissary here and were given medical attention.

SOLE RIGHTS TO NAME AND EMBLEM

New York Board of Election Sustains Independence Leaguers.

IT HITS DEMOCRATS

Candidates Who Filed Petitions as League Candidates Cannot Go Under That Device.

New York, Oct. 22.—The board of elections today sustained the contention of the Independence league, that it has the exclusive right to the use of that name and to the emblem, a pair of scales.

The matter will be carried to the supreme court by the protestants.

One effect of the decision will be that democratic candidates for congress, senate and assembly who filed petitions as Independence league candidates will be prohibited from appearing on the ticket under the balanced scales when the Independence league has a candidate of its own in the field.

It is expected the case will reach the appellate division on appeal by next Wednesday.

Tammany True to Hearst.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, declared today that there was no treachery toward W. R. Hearst in Tammany Hall. He said: "Tammany will go ahead putting up its best work for the democratic state ticket. There is nothing in the talk aboutTammany treachery."

Both the republican and democratic candidates for governor spent today in preparing for a continuation of the hard personal campaign which each has been making.

LEAD STORM

NEW HOTEL AND THEATER PROJECT IS REVIVED.

W. M. McElfatrick, New York Theater Builder, Looks In Upon Fort Wayne.

The proposition to give Fort Wayne a new combination hotel and theater building, first broached several years ago, discussed to some extent and later permitted to lapse, has been given renewed impetus by the appearance in Fort Wayne of Architect W. M. McElfatrick, of New York, one of the most famous theatre builders in America.

Mr. McElfatrick reached the city Saturday night and has devoted some time to an inspection of the sites suggested for the proposed new building. He has constructed a number of theaters for the Shuberts, and while stating that he was not in Fort Wayne at this time by authority of that firm of theater-owners and managers, Mr. McElfatrick did not hesitate to say that in his opinion Fort Wayne's chances for another hotel and a playhouse were excellent.

One of the sites examined was the Certia property on Calhoun street between Washington and Jefferson, with an L extending out on Washington street, and this Mr. McElfatrick said was ideal from every point of view. He was in consultation a large part of the morning with D. C. Fisher and with Col. John A. Scott, the latter representing independent theatrical interests in Fort Wayne, and left at noon for the east.

Mr. McElfatrick was born in Fort Wayne and said he should take genuine pleasure in putting in a handsome new hotel and theater in his native city. He is a son of J. B. McElfatrick, who recently died in New York, and who will be remembered by many of the older citizens of the city. He was the architect of the old Allen county court house.

MODUS VIVENDI POSSIBLE.

Nice, France, Oct. 22.—While disclaiming to speak by the authority of the pope, Bishop Chapon, in an interview today, flatly declared his conviction that if the hierarchy, through the bishops, is given the right by the council of state to decide on the regularity of the cultural associations in France to which church property may be surrendered a modus vivendi between the church and the government is possible and the vatican will not insist on parliamentary action in this connection.

STOLEN PAINTING RECOVERED.

New York, Oct. 22.—A valuable oil painting entitled "Girl Knitting," which was stolen from the art gallery in Eden park, Cincinnati, on October 6, was recovered here today. A young man who gave his name as Clarendon Henri was arrested when he attempted to dispose of the picture to a Fifth avenue art dealer.

COURT RELIEVES CITY OF STENCH

BASH FERTILIZER ESTABLISHMENT TO SHUT DOWN.

Owners Agree to Perpetual Restraining Order—General News of the Courts.

Residents of the east end of the city were relieved in the superior court of a stench that has been annoying them for several years by the entering of a perpetual restraining order to prevent the Bash Packing company and the Atlas Fertilizer company from operating the plant at the foot of Hanover street as a rendering establishment.

The application for an injunction made by City Attorney Guy Colerick several months ago was to have come up for a hearing before Judge Heaton this morning but the companies agreed to cease using the buildings for either rendering grease or manufacturing fertilizer and permitted the restraining order to be ganted.

There has been complaint after complaint made to the city authorities about the stench arising from the plant and eventually the matter reached the city council when a delegation of east end residents presented a petition asking that the place be declared a nuisance. A special committee made an investigation which resulted in an action being filed in the court and the final abatement of a nuisance.

Separated Eight Times.

Edward Schott has filed a complaint in the superior court in which he asks a divorce from Ethel Schott, stating that he and his wife have separated eight times since their marriage, which took place August 28, 1903.

He alleges there has been continual strife between them, that she has repeatedly struck him, abused and cursed him and threatened to burn out his eyes with carbolic acid. She is accused of having purchased acid for the purpose, which was taken from her by her husband. She is also charged with having threatened to kill him and he asks the custody of their child. W. C. Ryan is his attorney.

The Usual Reason.

Elaine Daugherty has applied to the superior court for a divorce from Walter Daugherty and sets forth the usual reasons. He is accused of having struck and beaten her, of calling her vile names and attempting to take her life. She asked for and was granted a restraining order to prevent him from disposing of his property. P. B. Colerick is her attorney.

Another Hunter Mulcted.

William F. Schmidt paid a fine and costs amounting to $32.50 in Justice Yancey's court this morning on a charge of hunting rabbits on Sunday filed by Rodney D. Fleming, deputy game warden. Schmidt entered a plea of guilty to the charge and while his fine was $5, the costs were increased by the addition of $20 to be paid to the auditor of state. He went voluntarily to the magistrate's office.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL.

It has come to my notice that some one is circulating the report that I am buying my produce in Chicago. In order to set the minds of the people at rest, I wish to explain to them and say that every ounce of meat and every article of produce that I furnish the prisoners or for my own use is bought right in the city of Fort Wayne.

Now, to show you the way I have been doing since in office, I have divided my trade in such a way so as to give every one of our home industries their share pro rata.

Each month I have bought from the meat markets in our city the meat we have used, and in order to give all of my friends a share of my patronage, I have gone from one to the other, changing each month for the number of months I have been in office, and shall continue to do so for the remaining months. The same is also true in regard to the other purchases made by me since in office. Every month I have given my patronage to some one of our home groceries, changing from one to the other every month, so as to give them all a share of my patronage. This same thing I have been doing with our home bakeries. Each month I have given one of them the order to deliver the amount of bread used during the month.

I invite every one who feels interested in this affair to call at the sheriff's office and convince themselves in regard to the truthfulness of the above statement by looking over the bills filed in the officed.

Respectfully,
JESSE GRICE.

FIGHTERS PLANK DOWN THEIR $11

HAD NOTHING TO SAY AND SETTLED THEIR FINES.

Two Men Want Same Woman and Neither Got Her But Both Were Arrested—City Court.

Two men who were fighting for the controlling interest in the affections of a woman early this morning paid $11 each in the city court today after having been entered on the records as Frank Johnson and William Bailey, both assumed names.

They had forgotten their differences by morning and sat and talked over their escapade while the other cases were being tried and both walked up and settled without a word, fearing probably that their correct names would be published. Both men come of good families and the name of the woman was not given out.

Evidence was heard against Joe Chenowith and his case taken under advisement until Friday morning. In the meantime the authorities at Jeffersonville will be notified that he is a paroled prisoner. Specific charges of immorality were made against him by two boys.

Uncle Silas and The Word Grafting

Tells What He Knows About It and Warns of Its Dangers.

[Copyright, 1906, by R. Douglas.]

A NEW word has been sprung upon us within the last two or three years, my son, and it means a heap more to the welfare and happiness of mankind than any new word for the last fifty years.

It is called "grafting." We all know that by grafting slips into the limbs of an old sour apple tree a farmer can produce new and better fruit, but the word as now used doesn't relate to fruit at all except the fruits of rascality.

A few years ago the man who "grafted" would have been called a thief, a robber and a swindler, and instead of walking around among us with his hat on his ear and boasting of his financial acumen he'd have been hustled into state prison.

Just at present we have a spasm of liberality on. We are willing to be robbed and wrecked and sent to the poorhouse, and we are willing to use soft terms toward those who despoil us. If a chap should come into our yard and steal our hoe, he would be a thief; if a financier worth a million dollars steals twenty thousand from us he is only a "grafter" and must not be brought to justice.

There is "grafting" going on all over the land. None is too high or too low to be suspected of it. In order not to hurt any one's feelings you should substitute the word "financiering" as often as possible. The man who "financiers" you out of your all might appeal to the law for damages if you called him by the right name.

Five years ago if you met a highway robber as he was out working up business he would be humming a gay air and feeling that this was not such a bad old world after all. If you appealed to him to leave you enough of your own money to buy the baby a nursing bottle he would gallantly accede to the request and throw in a cigar besides. He was honest in his occupation. He was a highway robber and nothing else.

You can't meet the same man tonight. He hung on as long as he could, but he was driven out of business by the "grafters"—men who juggle with stocks, raise the price of the necessaries of life, fill the country with poorhouses and then steal the roofs off them. Your highway robber used to be caught now and then by some constable who didn't share the spoils with him, and he stood up and took his punishment like a man.

At rare intervals your "grafter" is caught with the goods on him. There was a slip somewhere. He never meant to be caught. He doesn't throw up his hands, however. He employs from three to six first class lawyers; his friends kindly "fix" from three to six of the jury; some one with a political pull sees the judge. When the case comes to trial we find that we have been calling a shining light of honesty a thief and are liable in heavy damages. Apologies are handed out all around, and he goes on his way to "graft" some more.

The air is full of it, my son. Almost every corporation and public official is full of it. We can't live without paying "graft" for everything we eat and drink and wear, and we can't die without being buried in a trust coffin. I've been slashing around on earth for sixty-four years, and I can't remember a time when it came harder on human nature to be honest. It's a pretty hard thing for one man to buckle down and saw wood at 60 cents a cord when another is making $20 a day by "financing." While Farmer Reub is grubbing out a bare living in his fields the constable his vote helped to elect is making $15 a day by permitting autos to speed at a higher limit than the law says.

Nevertheless, my son, my advice to you is to hang on to yourself. Don't be carried away by the financiering excitement. If the man who was called a robber five years ago is referred to as a grafter today another five years may change things back. As a people we get streaks on. We seem to go to the devil for a few years and forget that there is such a thing as integrity, and then we haul up short and begin to fill the state prisons with shining lights. There are signs in the air that a change is coming. When it comes the judge who is holding stock in a trust, the juryman who has been taking bribes, the banker who has been faithless to his trust and the congressman who has sold his influence to a corporation are going to have a hard time getting away to South America, and the mosquitoes will bother them after they get there.

You can't make any permanent change in a civilized race. It will be honest about so long and dishonest about so long. It will have a conscience and admire integrity for a few years, and then every man will seem to feel licensed to rob every other man's hen roost. Today we would admire the man who could raise the price of kerosene oil to 40 cents a gallon and make $10,000,000 in a week. A year hence he'd go to prison in spite of all the lawyers in the land.

There was just another such "grafting" era when Uncle Jerry was sent to the legislature. He saw other men selling their votes, and he didn't sit down and figure that it was only a spasm. He decided that it was going to be a permanent thing and that the people had made up their minds to be "grafted" on for all time to come. Uncle Jerry got $500 for his vote and went home and painted his house and barn a beautiful yellow. The paint was hardly dry when a spasm of virtue came along, and Uncle Jerry had to hand that yellow house and barn over to the lawyers to keep himself out of state prison.

Just now we are permitting the trusts to rob the dead and the living. We are kicking on the one hand and buying their stock so as to reap the big dividends on the other. When these trusts can defy the highest courts in the land and squeeze the people a little harder every day it looks like a sure and lasting thing. Don't count on it, my boy. The people will get up on their hind legs some day and begin to howl, and before they are through there will be a new deal all around.

The real rulers of any country are the workers. When the farmer and the mechanic have been sat on about so long they will begin to squirm. Then is the time for the "grafter" to take a European trip. The squirming will soon become a struggle, and there has never been a struggle yet between the oppressed and oppressor but what the former won.

And, after all, we can't rid ourselves of the fact that we have consciences. There are hundreds of millionaires in this country, and when it is asserted in all earnestness that not five of them have made their fortunes honestly don't you believe there is cringing all along the line? The "grafter" may store up his hundreds of thousands and walk around with his nose in the air, but he must feel that he is an object of distrust and suspicion. Money is a good thing, my son, but if you haven't made it in an honest way and the village cooper passes you by without a nod it will set you to thinking.

Cut it out. That is, don't join the "grafters." In the first place, you may be "investigated" when the change comes and find yourself in a hole, and, in the second, there isn't so much in being able to buy scented soap and silver back hairbrushes as you imagine. Plain, old fashioned bar soap and a plain, old fashioned hairbrush carried George Washington into the hearts of millions of people for all time to come, and they ought to be good enough for everyday folks like you and me.

NEW YORK TRADERS FAIL.

Two Suspensions Are Announced on the Stock Exchange.

New York, Oct. 22.—The failure of J. W. Henning, an operator on the New York stock exchange, was announced on the floor of the exchange today.

Mr. Henning was a large trader on the exchange. It is said he suffered losses in Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul stock in April last.

Nearly all of Mr. Henning's business was confined to New York city interests and it is not believed that the failure will affect any large out of town accounts. The failure is bound to have resulted from over trading in the heavy slump in the market late last week. Mr. Henning's brother, C. S. Henning, said he is confident that his brother will be able to resume very soon.

J. W. Henning was one of the largest floor traders on the New York stock exchange. He had a number of wealthy clients and often handled heavy blocks of stocks. It is believed that the failure will involve a large amount of money.

Mr. Henning is also a well-known horse man and has maintained a large private stable.

The suspension of F. T. White, a heavy trader, was announced on the consolidated stock exchange today. Under the rules, Mr. White will have twenty-four hours to fulfill his contracts.

The meeting at Linton was also very large and enthusiastic.

Referring to the democratic issue of 1896 Mr. Bryan said at Linton:

"Ten years ago the democratic party went through a great struggle and the issue was far deeper than some people imagined. Some thought that the only question at issue was the silver question, whether silver should be restored to its use as money by the side of gold. Some people did not look further back than silver. They did not understand why the democratic party wanted silver restored. It was because the country needed more money. And why did the country need more money? Because a scarce currency was good for the money changers and hard on the masses of the people and it was a struggle between the common people who produced the wealth of this country and the few who by means of great corporations have been able to garner the wealth into their own pockets. That was the issue and some people did not see it."

Big Crowds in Other Cities.

The run from Linton to Bedford was the longest one of the day. A great many of the men working in the quarries took a half day off to listen to Mr. Bryan. The original schedule planned a stop of twenty minutes at Shoals, but this was changed and the train went to Loogootee, the reason given being that Mr. Bryan had spoken at Shoals a number of times and had never visited Loogootee. The meeting at Washington was a very large one and so was the meeting at Vincennes. Mr. Bryan will speak this evening at Evansville after he has talked at Princeton, Oakland City and Elberfeld.

FAIRBANKS IN OKLAHOMA.

Vice President Makes Speaking Tour in the New State.

Arkansas City, Kan., Oct. 22.—Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks was booked to deliver ten speeches in Oklahoma today. The vice president arrived here from the east early this morning on a regular train accompanied by a committee of Oklahomans that had gone to Kansas City to meet him. Here he was transferred to a special, and accompanied by more than 100 politicians and newspaper men from the territory, started for the trip across Oklahoma. The first stop was at Newkirk, where a big crowd greeted Mr. Fairbanks. He spoke from the rear platform of his car.

HANLY MAKES SPEECH.

Petersburg, Ind., Oct. 22.—Governor Hanly addressed a large crowd here today. His speech was a review of what the state administration has accomplished in behalf of honest government and reform.

NEWS OF THE FARM.

Tennessee farmers say they will hold their wheat for the dollar mark. It is doubtful if they will get it this year.

More than 1,500,000 pounds of butter were shipped from St. Paul in the month of July.

Utah has an experimental farm at which farmers are taught the best methods of irrigating, cultivating and raising small fruits and grain.

It was reported that the Swift Packing company has sent wagons all through the northwest to pick up all the eggs possible for shipment to St. Paul and Chicago. In some counties it is reported that an egg famine exists owing to the keen demand made by the Swift company.

The poultry dealers of the country have formed a national association in defense against the proposed poultry and egg trust recently formed by the Chicago packers.

Farmers in irrigated sections of the far west cut from three to six tons of alfalfa per acre every year. While this large yield cannot be obtained in the eastern states, perhaps there is no reason why alfalfa, on the right kind of soil, will not produce from three to four tons.

Henry Coffman, of Randolph, Iowa, on his place has taken off 1,200 pounds of honey this summer and will have about 1,800 pounds more. He sells it all at 10 cents per pound the year around.

Continued heavy rains are greatly delaying the work of the Kansas farmers in ploying and seeding. For this reason the acreage of wheat sown this fall in this community is almost certain to be smaller than any previous year. A great deal of threshing has to be done and much of the wheat is damaging in the stacks.

Farmer, at Oakes, N. D., gets 1,550 pounds of wheat off an acre. Near Walhalla, however, a farmer reports 1,800 pounds of durum off the same sized field.

Incorporating under the state laws, farmers in the town of Campbell, Wis., have banded themselves together in an organization whose purpose it is to sell farm products direct to the big wholesale dealers, instead of paying a local middleman's profit. The incorporators are: W. J. Dawson, Frank Hardy and E. H. Kinney.

The Illinois Central railroad is about to operate a farmers' special train south of the Ohio river. For several years the railroads of the north have run seed and soil specials through the middle west states, and now farmers of the south are to have the benefit of lectures on methods of increasing the diversified crops of Dixieland.

There are many people who need the nourishment to the system which codliver oil would give, but their stomachs refuse to accept it. Sweet cream is a highly recommended substitute for the oil, being a nutritious food which can be taken by those inclined to consumption or having feeble digestion, and also by aged persons.

The whole community shares in the creamery patron's prosperity. The grocer and the merchant, the implement man and the harness-maker do business on less capital and with more certainty in a creamery section than elsewhere, because they are also put on a cash basis. They pay their bills with money that comes from the creamery.

George W. Hoffman, a well known citizen of Maysville, continues very critically ill from paralysis, and it is believed he can survive but a few days. Mr. Hoffman is the father of Attorney E. G. Hoffman, the democratic county chairman.

He was a native of Pennsylvania, born June 26, 1842, and came with his parents to Fort Wayne when a mere child. A little later the family removed to Whitley county. During the civil war the father and eldest brother enlisted in the army, and Robert was left at home to care for his mother and the other children. Mrs. Louisa Winters, widow of Christian Winters, and a pioneer resident of Allen county, died Sunday morning at 11:45 o'clock at her home in Pleasant township, at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Winters had been ill for eight weeks, her death being due to stomach trouble and the infirmities of age.

Prior to her marriage she was Miss Louisa Lepper, and she came to Allen county with her parents in 1837, settling on a farm near Maples and working in Fort Wayne until 1844, when she was united in marriage to Christian Winters, near Maples, where they resided until 1853, then removing to Ohio. Ten years later Mr. and Mrs. Winters returned to Allen county, locating in Pleasant township, where the remainder of their days were spent, the husband dying in 1875. Mrs. Winters was the mother of eleven children, all surviving save one son, Alex., who died in 1892. The living children are Peter, Charles, August and Frank Winters, of Pleasant township, Christian Winters, of Grover Hill, Ohio; Mrs. Lizzie Ruttan, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. William Shive and Mrs. M. J. Beaver, of Pleasant township; Mrs. D. McLeish and Mrs. Lucy Tombaugh, of this city.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence; interment at Five Points.

DOUBLE.

William Double, aged sixty-six years, died at the home of his son, William, in Pleasant township Sunday evening at 7 o'clock of stomach trouble. He had been in ill health for the past seven years, but it was only within the last few weeks that his condition became serious. Mr. Double was born in Pennsylvania and came to Indiana in 1838, settling in Wells county, where he resided two years. From there he came to his present home, where he has resided ever since.

Mrs. Double died seven years ago. Surviving relatives are seven children—John J., of this city; Erin and David, of Muncie; Mrs. Limecooley, of Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Mrs. Adeline Grider, Mrs. Sadie McGovern and William Double, of Pleasant township.

Miss Yergens was born in St. Joe township, and prior to her illness had been employed at the works of the Boss Manufacturing company. She was a most estimable young woman and leaves many friends. Surviving relatives include the parents, a sister, Miss Carrie Yergens, and five brothers, Will, Edward, Albert, Fred and George Yergens.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Paul Lutheran church. Friends may view the remains at the residence from Tuesday morning until Wednesday noon.

PRESSLER.

James V. Pressler, a farmer residing near Wolf Lake, Noble county, died at noon Sunday at the Lutheran hospital in this city following an operation for obstruction of the bowels.

Mr. Pressler was 46 years of age, and had been ill since Tuesday. The case was a critical one and the surgical operation was determined upon as offering the only possible chance of saving the stricken man's life. Mr. Pressler is survived by two children.

The remains were taken to Columbia City Sunday afternoon and from thence to the late home.

BAXTER.

Mrs. Mary A. Baxter, wife of B. F. Baxter, residing at 1617 Indiana avenue, died this morning at the age of 61 years.

TO GATHER THOSE WHO HAVE STRAYED

PURPOSE OF RELIGIOUS CENSUS SOON TO BE TAKEN.

Facts of Different Denominations in Fort Wayne Will Be Gathered in Four Hours Oct. 25.

A. H. Cross, of Cleveland, O., speaking in the Bethel Evangelical church, of which Rev. D. E. Zeichel is pastor, last evening, cited an instance to show the value of systematic, thorough visitation work in large cities. Mr. Cross has traveled largely over the country as superintendent of house visitations and has had opportunity to make special study of religious conditions in the great centers of population.

At the request of the pastors he came to Fort Wayne to direct the canvass which is to be taken Thursday afternoon, Oct. 25.

During his Sunday school address last night on the theme, "Lengthening and Strengthening," Mr. Cross said in part:

"If you have ever visited the Dakotas, the country which has been styled 'the bread basket of North America,' you have noticed earlier in the season than this that miles and miles of prairies rolled away in wheat fields in which the grain grew almost shoulder high. Late one afternoon a bright little child of four years wandered away from the cabin and became lost in one of the great fields of grain. Her relatives searched for her in vain until dark, and then the news traveled down the valley, so that at daybreak on the following day over two hundred people had gathered to help find the little one. For some time the search was hurried—a score of persons peering into the same shed, people almost tripping over each other as they hastened here and there over the little cleared space around the small cabin.

"Finally one man said: 'Let us line up our forces and cover the ground systematically.' This they did. His word was that two good eyes must see every foot of cleared space. The squads divided and subdivided going over with great care all the ground surrounding the home and barn buildings. Then one hundred and twenty men lined up and joined hands. One man controlled 30,000 acres. He took the hand of a Finn who had just arrived from Europe. Some were of this religious belief, some that, but differences of belief and station in life were lost sight of since all were intent on finding the child. It was one of the queerest processions that ever moved in this country—those one hundred and twenty men, standing about three feet apart. Slowly, carefully, they marched out into the high wheat, each man watching the ground. Scores of mothers stood by wishing the men success, some lips moved in prayer. Two miles and more from the cabin door they found the little one. It was too late, however, and the child died within fifteen minutes after being placed in the mother's arms, exposure, fright and fatigue having done their work.

"Was it not a wise thing to line up the searchers systematically? The answer must be self-evident. Is it a wise thing to line up the churches' forces to find the boys and girls, the men and women who are away from the churches before it is too late? This answer must be self-evident. House to house visitation shows the community that the churches are interested in every one, and it strives to get the name, address and church preference of every person, so as to save time, energy and expense in reaching them through the church they prefer.

"It also brings to light much that all churches need to know in order to plan their work to the best advantage. Besides all this, it enlarges fellowship between denominations by giving each a better understanding of the other, making none love their own church less, but making all love their neighbor's church more."

A strong point in favor of these plans for doing this work in this united way is that the plans do not call for any expense worth mentioning. A prominent business man in a city of 400,000 thought the canvass of his city would cost about $2,500, and had planned on spending about that amount. He was most agreeably surprised when he found the work could be done in his city for a little over $500. It is not an expensive work certainly when four hundred people can be lined up to visit in a single afternoon more than 50,000 people in this city for less than $150. The committee hopes to do the work for about $130. Experience shows that on an average five homes can be visited by these plans in a city for one cent each. It will be remembered that all of the visitors and the committee workers render their service gratuitously, and that no one makes anything out of the work.

This evening in the Railroad Y. M. C. A. will be held a conference of the twenty-one district directors. A. S. Coverdale, chairman of this committee; General Chairman Charles A. Hood and Mr. Cross will be present to assist in assigning the 350 visitors to the various headquarters throughout the city.

The most important meeting in connection with the visitation is the school of instruction for visitors which is to be held Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church. The committee desires to specially request of all who are to serve as enumerators that they wil just so far as possible plan engagements for the week so as to be present at this meeting and receive instructions for the important work on Thursday afternoon.

No false pretense has marked the career of Ely's Cream Balm. No idle promises of reward for cases it will not cure. Being entirely harmless, it is not responsible like the catarrh snuffs and powders, for minds shattered by cocaine. The great positive virtue of Ely's Cream Balm is that it speedily and completely cures nasal catarrh and hay fever. Back of this statement is the testimony of thousands and a reputation of many years' success. All druggists, 50c., or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

AN EXCLUSIVE FEATURE WITH THE PIANOLA

Although the great musical authorities have pronounced it ESSENTIAL to an artistic piano-player, no other instrument has any device EVEN REMOTELY RESEMBLING IT. At this advanced stage in the development of piano-player, the public has a right to expect more than a mere striking of the notes in proper sequence. It has a right to expect INTERPRETATION and the ACCENTUATING of the notes that should be accentuated; not a colorless, automatic rendition, but the close approximation of a performance by a great master of the keyboard.

When it comes to choice of a particular make of piano-player, the latest improvements obtainable only in the Pianola would seem to leave no opportunity for dispute, no room for difference of opinion.

Music is FOR THE EAR. IT is never possible to arrive at a correct understanding of a piece of music, or a musical instrument, by simply READING about it. You are, therefore, urged most strongly TO HEAR the new Pianola for yourself. Do not take anybody's "say-so" about it, but let your own ear be the judge.

Mr. Bryan's Indiana tour may not return this state to control of his party, but it will arouse a good many somnolent citizens to the fact that a campaign is in progress.

The peace of Portsmouth evidently has not ended the disasters of war for Russia. A ship of that nation has just rammed a floating mine off Vladivostok and gone to sea bottom with 150 men. It continues to become more apparent that while Japan may have helped some, Russia in the main was licked by herself.

A church congregation in Louisville has a pastor who is regarded by the members of his flock as being about the best in the universe. The congregation wants to keep him and by resolution has served notice on all other congregations otherwise and elsewhere that there is no use of bidding for this preacher—he will not be released on any account. The loyalty of this congregation is such as that its pastor must have multiplied opportunities to do good; to command hearty co-operation and open purses; to feel that his congregation appreciates him for his worth to its members and his service to the cause of the church and does not view him as the recipient of its favors. That preacher will probably never make his people bid high to keep him. He'll want to stay anyway.

Pittsburg gamblers and bucket shop keepers are under strain of some anxiety because the law authorities purpose to bring to book all those whom it can be proved had any hand in fleecing the young bank clerks who stole $385,000 and lost it in speculation or at the gaming table. It seems almost too much for rational credulity to swallow that two obscure clerks could loot a great financial concern of such vast sum, taken as it was in large bunches of cash and go so long without discovery. Sooner or later, however, discovery was certain to come and when it did the thieves told a story to amaze the world. They were easy victims for the sharks of the bucket shops and gambling rooms and were relieved of their stolen cash by devices so palpable as must have made the sharpers blushingly feel it a "shame to take the money." It is much to be hoped that those who participated in the dissipation of the bank's stolen funds can be brought to book. They more than the weak-minded fellows who betrayed their trust are deserving of the law's most severe penalties.

TAFT DOING CHRIST'S WORK.

Dr. Abbott Refers to Cuban Trip and to Root's Journey.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 22.—Praise for Secretaries Taft and Root as men who were doing Christ's work in the world formed a part of a sermon by Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, of New York, before the Yale students at Battell chapel yesterday. Dr. Abbott did not mention the name of either but referred to one who had "gone to Cuba and brought order out of chaos" and to the other as one who had "made a journey through South America harmonizing the north with the south."

He also referred to the political campaign now on in New York state. He said: "At the present time there is a great discussion in my state over the differences between the trust and the free competitive movement. There is a great desire to break down the combinations. Both sides are wrong. The evil is not in the combinations, it is not in the free competition.

"The cause of the difficulty is much the same as in the old parable. Each tree has too much to do for itself to be ruler over the rest. Such men as Jones of Minneapolis, Folk of Missouri, and Colby of New Jersey and Jerome of New York are saying to me that there is a way in which this country can be ruled along the lines of righteousness and peace.

"When one of our great statesmen went to Cuba and brought order out of chaos; when one of our rich men left the pursuit of fortune and went into government work and made a journey through the states of South America, harmonizing the north with the south, that was the work of Christ on earth."

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE TIGHTENS.

Police Making Good Case Against Alleged Bank Robbers.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—The chain of evidence the police are fast welding around the three Meyers brothers, arrested on Saturday last on suspicion of being connected with the murder and robbery at the Japanese bank in this city, was tightened yesterday. The detectives have found the man to whom the brothers sold their horse and buggy for $60 a few days after the crime. This is the horse and buggy, it is said, that was left standing in front of the Japanese bank during the commission of the crime and in which the murderers escaped. The name of the purchaser, together with other important details, is being withheld, but the fact of the sale of the rig and its identification have been established beyond a doubt.

DEATH REVEALS PATHETIC STORY

SUICIDE FOLLOWS ESCAPE FROM DISORDERLY HOUSE.

Polish Immigrant Girl Breaks From Life of Shame and Dying Leaves Parents Helpless.

New York, Oct. 22.—A Polish immigrant girl two months in this country made her escape from a disorderly house in the neighborhood and killed herself at noon yesterday by leaping from the roof of a four-story tenement at 282 West Fourth street. The police learned enough to disclose a pathetic story.

Michael Belsky, a chairmaker, with his wife and baby, was just sitting down to dinner Saturday night in their two-room home on the fourth floor of the house when they heard a knock at the door. There stood Sam Lieberman, who keeps a saloon next door, with Polski, a friend of Belsky's, and a strange young woman, hatless and sobbing as if in great grief.

Polski, Belsky's friend, said he had found the woman on a river pier, and, fearing she contemplated suicide, spoke to her. He was surprised to find she was Polish like himself. He said he thought if Belsky and his wife would take her in for the night he might find her a home in the morning. Belsky and his wife consented and welcomed the stranger.

She said between sobs she came from Russian Poland two months ago. Her name was Annie Kaska. She had left her old father and mother, promising to save all her money and send for them soon. At the battery she was met by a man who said he would get her a good place to work. He took her to a house where she had been compelled to submit to all kinds of indignities. She was not permitted to keep a cent and a letter from home told her that her old father and mother were starving and begged that she send for them. It made her desperate.

Friday night she managed to escape. All night and all day Saturday she tried to get somebody to understand her, but none could speak her language. Finally she lost heart and decided she would kill herself and started for the river. There Polski found her. It took the kind-hearted Belskys the best part of the evening to get this from her. They urged her to eat, but she refused.

"I am not fit to eat with you," she said, "and I have no money to pay you."

A few minutes before noon she left her room. She went to the roof, walked to the front, and threw herself to the pavement.

FARMERS' BUSINESS CONGRESS.

Co-Operative Organization Assembles in Kansas Capital.

Topeka, Kans., Oct. 22.—The Farmers' Co-Operative Business congress, with a large attendance of delegates from the western and southern states, met here today. C. W. Peckham, of Haven, Kans., president of the Farmers' Elevator association, of Kansas, speaking of the congress, said:

"Our purpose in calling this kind of a meeting is to more closely unite the agricultural interests of the west and south. It is not our intention to organize a trust of the farmers. It has been said that we propose to increase the price of wheat a stated amount. This we intend to do, but not by organizing and demanding that the consumers pay that for our produce. If we can sell our products to the southern associations at a higher price than we receive from the middle men and can enable the southern producers to hold their produce, we will work out a plan whereby the price of farm products will naturally work higher."

EPIDEMIC OF DIPHTHERIA.

Worcester, Mass., Is Scourged by Dreaded Disease.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 22.—The most serious epidemic of diphtheria in this city since 1900, was reported by the board of health for the week just ended. In one day eight cases came to the notice of the officials and fifty-two families are now in quarantine, affecting the attendance of fifteen schools of the city. The total number of cases for the week was forty-two, while since August there have been 300 persons afflicted.

Dr. Clark, chairman of the board of health, says that the disease is virulent. In the diphtheria ward at the isolation hospital thirty-four patients are receiving attention.

DEFAULTING CLERK ARRESTED.

Madeira, Cal., Oct. 22.—William Vice, the defaulting Union Pacific railroad clerk, for whom the railroad detectives have been searching for years, was taken into custody last night. He stated at the jail that he had intended to surrender himself. Vice had been living in this city, where he was known as Thomas Ryan, since May, 1903. He denies that he ever left the state, and expects to be released on bail immediately on his arrival in San Francisco.

How Kites Can Be Used in Next Great War.

SUSPENDED FROM A KITE IN MID-AIR. FROM THE BYSTANDER.

The aerial contrivance most likely to be of use in the wars of the future, many think, is the kite, and the experiments with an invention, photographed at the recent military maneuvers, are of exceptional interest. The modus operandi is this: Large kites are flown very high up, and the steel rope which holds them to the earth is used as a pulley, up which is slung another boxkite, and attached to it is a small car with a motor fitted to it, which aids it in making the ascent. Thus it will be seen that danger is extremely improbable. There is no gas to explode, and the likelihood of any mishap befalling the kites up in the skies is remote. The officer in the car, likewise, can ascend or descend, or remain stationary, according to his wish.

SWINDLER GOES TO PRISON.

London, Oct. 22.—The man styling himself Gerry Morgan and who claimed to be a member of the Harvard Rowing club and a nephew of J. Pierpont Morgan was today sentenced at the Old Bailey to twenty months at hard labor on the charge of having obtained a small sum of money by fraud from Dr. Dickey, resident surgeon of the Miller hospital at Greenwich. He had previously been convicted on several occasions.

AMERICAN EARL SPURNS TITLE.

Former Chicagoan Refuses to Quit Land of Adoption for England.

Los Angeles, Oct. 22.—R. R. Carew, heir to an earldom in England, prefers to be an American citizen and a Los Angeles realty dealer and spurns a title which is his for the asking.

Carew was a resident of Chicago when the Spanish-American war broke out and enlisted in the First Regiment of that city. At the charge up the San Juan hill he was wounded. He was slow to recover in Chicago and so came west.

Mr. and Mrs. Carew are making preparations for a trip to England. Mr. Carew recently learned of the death of his father and two older brothers, and is going back to visit his sister. He says nothing could induce him to remain or set up any claim to his father's earldom. He would say nothing of his family connections. He admitted the general truth of the story told by his friends.

When he was a mere lad his father, to give him training in business, sent him to Wales to manage some property there. The son intrusted an agent to attend to his affairs while he was absent on one occasion. The agent signed his employer's name to fraudulent papers, securing a sum of money and leaving the country. Out of this grew a family estrangement of thirty-two years duration.

The new earl was once a Michigan state senator. He married an American girl.

LONDON BANKER A SUICIDE.

P. MacFadyen, After Failure, Throws Himself Under Train.

London, Oct. 22.—P. MacFadyen, head of MacFadyen & Co., bankers, whose suspension was announced Saturday, committed suicide within an hour after posting the notice of the failure on the door of the bank, by throwing himself before a train in a tunnel about half a mile away from his place of business.

Mr. MacFadyen appears to have gone direct from his bank to a station of the City and South London railway, to have entered the tunnel unobserved and deliberately lay down in front of an approaching train. The engineer reported having run over an obstruction in the tunnel and a search revealed a shockingly mutilated body, which today was identified as that of Mr. MacFadyen.

It is rumored that the failure of MacFadyen & Co., the London house of Arbuthnot & Co., bankers of Madras, was connected with the cotton market but as Mr. MacFadyen was the sole partner in Europe, it is difficult to obtain information on the subject.

MERELY AS BANKERS.

Part Kuhn Loed & Co. Are Playing in Illinois Central Deal.

New York, Oct. 22.—Following is given by Kuhn Loeb & Co., for publication:

"Concerning the controversy which has arisen in connection with the recent annual election of the Illinois Central Railroad company, Kuhn Loeb & Co., who are acting as bankers only are unwilling to be drawn into these differences. They hold proxies on a considerable amount of stock which is sent by them to Mr. Fish at the instance of the owners, and as far as Kuhn Loeb & Co., are concerned, this ends their connection with the situation."

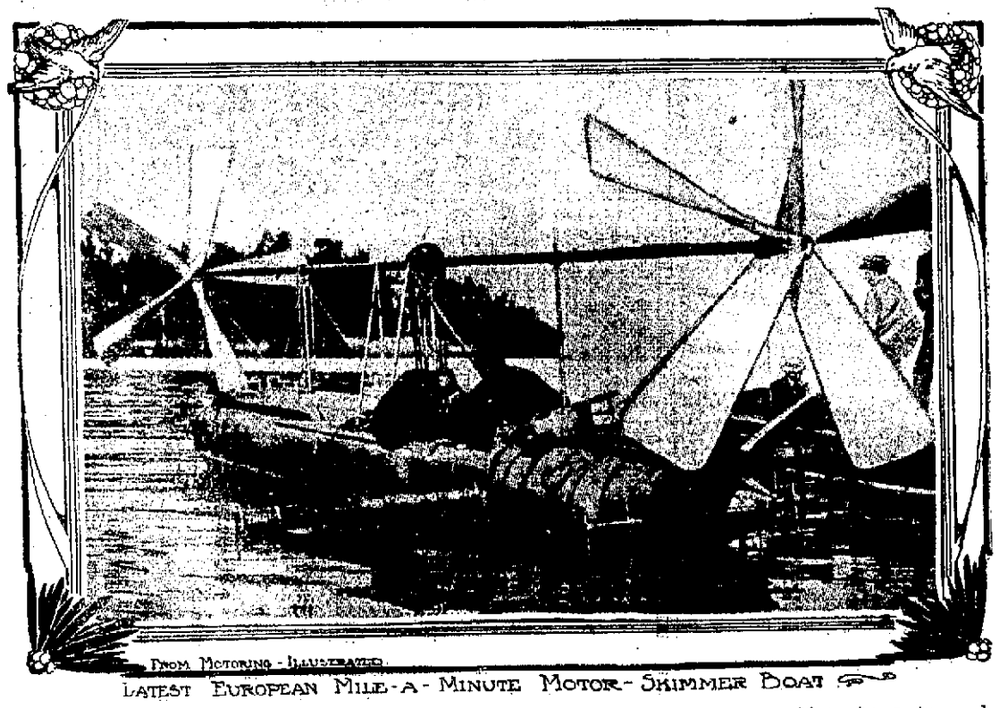
New Mile-a-Minute Skimmer.



FROM MOTORING ILLUSTRATED.

LATEST EUROPEAN MILE-A-MINUTE MOTOR-SKIMMER BOAT

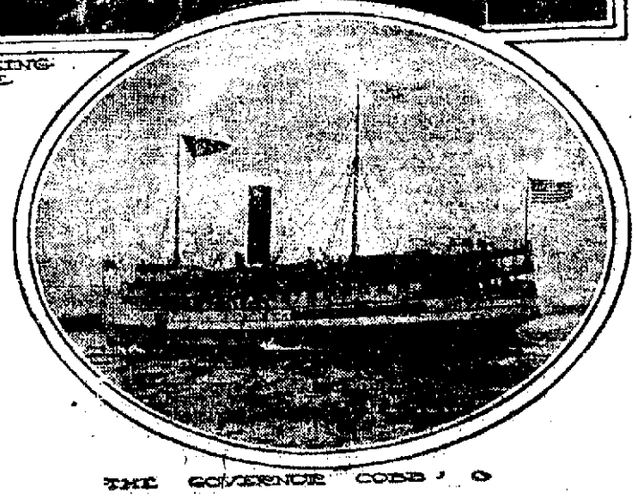
Many experiments have recently been made, says Motoring Illustrated, with flat bottomed motor boats of the skimmering or "ducks and drakes" type. The latest "skimmer" is shaped like a thickened cigar. It has a seventy horse power motor, which, instead of driving a screw, revolves huge fans at either end of a shaft running the length of the vessel. According to report, marvelous results have been achieved, the inventor M. Forlanini, having attained a speed of forty-three miles an hour.

Even traveling against wind and on days when the lake was rather rough (the experiments were made on the Lake Maggiore) the boat going at full speed kept a most regular march, hardly brushing the water and almost flying over it.

The inventor, though he does not claim to have solved the aerial navigation problem, thinks that his early experience indicates that a successful flying machine can be built on these lines. His experiments have been made on Lake Maggiore. About two years back we described a fan driven boat in use on a French weed infested river.

Turbine Beats Contract Speed.

VIEW OF TURBINES LOOKING FORWARD TOWARD ENGINE PLATFORM.



THE GOVERNOR COBB.

New York, Oct. 22.—Starting from the Hoboken pier of the W. & A. Fletcher company, builders of her engines, the Governor Cobb, the first turbine-driven steamship built in this country, went up the Hudson river last week on a successful trial trip. With but five of her boilers in use, the Governor Cobb made a full knot in excess of her contract speed of seventeen knots, and over a measured mile off Tarrytown ran at a speed of 21.88 statute miles an hour.

The three Parsons turbines of 5,000 horse power turned the triple screws at 475 revolutions a minute without a hitch with a steam pressure of 125 pounds. An inexperienced crew was in charge, but the various evolutions incident to the handling of such a vessel were made easily and well.

Society

The spirit of Hallowe'en made an early visit today at the beautiful little luncheon party that Mrs. W. P. Breen gave in honor of Miss Blair, at the golf club. Everything decorative was in pumpkin yellow and suggestive of the night of October 30. Electric lights glimmered through grotesque faces in yellow holders. Small pumpkin bonbon dishes were filled with candies and used for individual favors. A huge pumpkin cut in fancy shape and filled with autumn foliage and flowers made a beautiful piece for the table. Jack-o'-lanterns grinned at one in all sorts of places and it only needed a merry party of young girls to make the scene complete. Miss Foster and the visiting girls, Miss Larmonth, Miss Gleason, Miss Peppen and Miss Greening completed the party.

An Hour of Music.

Mrs. Herbert Hildebrand Rogers, of the city, and Andrew Brown Nichols, of Cleveland, with the assistance of Ferd W. Urbahns, gave a free musicale at the First Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mr. Nichols has been playing for the church for a few Sundays and offered a program for the pleasure of such musical people as those in charge had time to invite, as the entire program was rather impromptu. Mrs. Rogers is a recent addition to musical circles of the city and is bound to prove a most valuable one. She has a pure, mellow soprano of fine quality and is altogether a promising and interesting singer. Mr. Nichols is a well equipped organist, whose understanding of technique and registration are at once apparent. The march by Wely in E flat was by all means the most finished number of his program. Mr. Urbahns sang as delightfully as ever and his work shows an ever increasing power to interpret.

—Luncheon.—
Champignons aux Fromage.
Crab Apple Sauce. Cookies.

—Dinner.—
Baked Ham, Cider Sauce.

Champignons aux Fromage—Use about one-third of a pound of wild mushrooms, peeled and cut in coarse pieces, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one tablespoonful of flour, one cupful of milk, four shakes of salt, half as much white pepper, three tablespoonfuls of grated cheese and five slices of toast. Melt the butter in a frying pan, add the mushrooms and cook slowly till a golden brown; add the lemon juice; mix well, then stir in the salt, pepper and flour. Add slowly the milk, stirring the while, and cook till thick and smooth; then add the cheese to melt. Have ready the toasted slices, place on a platter, then pour the mushroom mixture over; serve hot.

Home-Preserved Meat—When calves' liver is cheap it is an excellent plan to pot some for the winter's table. Take a whole calfs' liver, wash well and cut away the gall. Rub into it half a pound of salt and let it stand over night; in the morning wash in several waters and place in a deep jar (earthen); add a half pound of fresh fat pork, two large onions chopped, four bay leaves, a teaspoonful of whole mace crushed, four whole cloves, a tablespoonful of sugar and a quart of water. Cover the jar, place in a slow oven and simmer four hours; then remove the liver, cut in slices, strain the gravy over it and stand aside over night. Next morning chop fine, then pound to a paste, adding the gravy gradually, with a scant teaspoonful of cayenne and half a pound of melted butter. Now press through a sieve, pack in small pots, cover with melted mutton suet, then with strong brown paper, and store in a cool dry place. It can be served in broiled slices, in sandwiches or with mayonnaise of celery.

Tsukemono—apan offers us a new and appetizing way of serving cucumbers. Peel four ripe, medium-sized cucumbers; cut into four parts and wipe dry. Heat one and a half tablespoonfuls of melted butter; add a finely sliced onion and a seeded green pepper shredded; fry for ten minutes, stirring often, then lay the cucumbers over; season with a scant teaspoonful of salt, a half teaspoonful of curry powder, four tablespoonfuls of cider vinegar and a tablespoonful of sugar. Boil five minutes, then set in the oven for thirty-five minutes, basting the cucumbers often. Remove and turn into a hot dish, sprinkle with a little chopped parsley, then serve. (A Filipini.)

NEATNESS PAYS.

Two women sat at near-by tables in a restaurant, one with glowing, unlined face, glossy hair, bright eyes; the other sallow, wrinkled, with dull hair, showing from under her toque.

In years and dress they were about on a par. But one looked ten years older than the other—passe, uninteresting.

Yet the difference was altogether a matter of taking proper care.

If these two women were to seek a business position, which, think you, other things being equal, would get it?

If they have children, which are the children likely to regard their mother with the greater pride and loving admiration?

In their circle of friends, which is the more sought after—the comely, bright, glowing woman, who breathes vitality, good health and joy in living from the very finger tips; or the wrinkled, sallow woman, who shows weariness of the world from her whole being? says Home Chat.

It's a duty as well as a pleasure to be as beautiful as possible. Make up your mind to look "well groomed" as to hair, teeth, nails, skin, and small details of dress. Live simply and avoid all that makes for indigestion and biliousness.

We expect the young to have good complexions and bright eyes, but to carry this guerdon of youth far down the aisles of time—ah, that is to possess a charm well worth every woman's earnest seeking.

CHEESE COLORED TO ORDER.

Different parts of the country have very strongly marked tastes as to the color of cheese.

You could not sell at any price in Birmingham a cheese that is in great demand in Coventry, and if you sent some of the kind demanded in Norfolk to Manchester it would at once be returned.

East Anglia demands a cheese of brick-red color, while Lancashire must have "Manchester white," and the other northern counties go in for a golden-tinted cheese. Nearly all cheese is prepared to the carefully worded order of the probable buyer.—Home Chat.

There are two things for a business woman to bear in mind during business hours—her duty toward her employer and her self-respect. During business hours attend strictly to the work you have in hand. After hours you can enjoy yourself with a clear sense of duty done.—Home Chat.

STUCK TO IT

For Years, But Finally Had to Give Up Coffee.

Our habit of eating and drinking sticks to use like a hungry pup to a bone. We can't always break loose even when we know we ought to.

Coffee does certainly hurt many persons, and they know it. But it is one thing to know it and another to devise some way to change the habit and still have a warm beverage at meal time. Thousands of persons all over the world have found it easy to quit coffee because they use Postum Food Coffee.

"For years I've felt the harm of drinking coffee," writes an Iowa woman, "but I liked it so well I stuck to it until about two years ago I quit coffee, and tea, too, and began to drink Postum.

"I made it, not like coffee, but boiled it according to directions on the package, and the first time we had it we all liked it. We have it now, morning, noon and night, and all feel healthier and happier for the change.

"I never have heartburn nor indigestion any more, though my husband and I used to suffer that way and with nervous headache a great deal of the time when we drank tea and coffee. We can't say enough in praise for Postum and for the good it has done us." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Get the book, "The Road to Wellville," from the package. "There's a reason."

Hair Dressing Modes for Children

Without a pretty bow tied some place on her hair, no little girl thinks her coiffure is complete, for this season the fashion of wearing ribbons is more pronounced than it was during the summer, when rosettes and loops formed a substitute for hats and bonnets. Fortunately, unlike styles affected by grown-ups, there are no particular places designated for bows or loops and there is no etiquette to be followed in the custom of tying ribbons, for the rosette is just as smart as the butterfly bow that has long been familiar, and either may be worn at the side of a small child's head, at the back or on top, and will be equally correct.

Large bows will be much used this fall and coming winter, the size depending entirely upon the shape of the little one's face and the style in which the hair is dressed. Even the color, width and finish of the ribbon is a matter of individual taste, for a bright red bow will be selected by some mothers while others will prefer checked or, perhaps, light blue, delicate pink, or pure white for their daughters, and any one of these will be equally good form. Even black bows will be worn, but not as much as the colors for small girls. Taffeta is considered more girlish than satin ribbon. The width of hair ribbon is varied, two and two and a quarter inches wide being best liked, while others that tie into quite as attractive bows are not more than an inch or three-quarters of an inch in width.

Wearing a large butterfly bow at the left side of the head will be a popular style among girls of from six to ten years of age. This bow is most effective when the hair is parted on the right side and the ends brought over and tied with the ribbon on the left side down near the ear, or higher up on the head if it is more becoming in the latter position.

Another style of hair dressing that looks well with a large butterfly bow at the left is done by parting the hair on both sides and at the back, separating the strands on top of the head into a sort of square. This is tied and kept together with a bow.

An odd fashion of coiffure for a young girl is to part the hair down the middle of the head, and at either side just above the ears put on a rosette, with a broad piece of ribbon crossing the hair and connecting the ornaments at either side.

A large bow behind a pompadour is also pretty for girls who no longer wear their hair loose, or in short braids at the back. Bows tied directly in front, where they fall over the forehead, is a fashion that is becoming to real young girls, especially those who have curls.

Advice to Women Shoppers in Buying Fall Street Gown

Safest to Order Short Jacket Fancifully Braided and Trimmed.

(By A. T. Asnmore.)

The sooner the task of selecting the winter's outfit is faced, the better. There may be certain advantages in waiting until late in the season to decide just what costume shall be purchased, but they are completely overruled by all that is gained in having the wardrobe ready by the commencement of winter. Then, too, it is far easier to be waited on before the real rush starts, and by now all the French models are ready to be copied.

As a cloth dress is most important, this should be decided upon first of all. At present the models offered are many and various, but in a short while the over-eccentric ones will be weeded out, and only those of really good style will remain. It is safest to order at this time of year a short jacket rather fancifully braided and trimmed, and if the suit is for street wear, with skirt of walking length. While princess cloth gowns are still worn, the two-piece costume remains most popular, for a cloth waist is bound to be too heavy often. Waists of chiffon cloth or marquisette with straps of the cloth and just a little lace at the neck are extremely pretty this year and are lighter than the cloth.

Many Long Coats to Be Worn.

Short jackets, while most in favor are not alone fashionable this year, for apart from the hip length coat there are many longer jackets, some coats indeed, being so long as to reach almost to the hem of the skirt. Some of the long coats are fitted while others again are quite loose and rather fussily braded. The severe three-quarter fitted coat is temporarily out of style nor is its place taken by any model that is half so smart, but naturally one must remain in fashion and be fashionably gowned—almost the same thing nowadays.

There is one style of dress this year that is unusually smart for that very reason, and is besides undeniably useful. This costume consists of a plain or plaid silk dress trimmed with bands of cloth, with a deep border of cloth at the end of the skirt. Over this is worn a long fitted coat of the same cloth with which the dress is trimmed. The cloth must be put on in such a way as not to make the gown look too heavy—in fact it must be an attractive silk house dress, but when the long coat is donned the costume is suitable both in weight and style for the street. In an old shade of blue and in old rose this costume is charming.

Street Gowns Do Not Favor Empire Models.

There is little of the empire about the street dress. Of course, there are many short, loose empire coats, but they are not much in favor, the long waist showing the natural good lines of the figure being infinitely more becoming to nearly every woman. The long Directoire coat will be worn for afternoon and for an elaborate style of dress, but will be seen but seldom for the morning or with any style of walking dress. The Empire, when made up for a coat and skirt, is much modified, often so much so as to be recognized with difficulty.

Smart School Girls' Coat for Early Fall Wear

(By Mrs. Jane Ford).

Comfortable looking indeed is this long coat for a girl of from eight to twelve years of age, and it has the advantage of being easily made. If the material is heavy it will not be necessary to use a lining, but if a lightweight material is employed perhaps for winter a lining of quilted silk or Italian cloth would make it more comfortable. For mothers who intend making the coat at home it is well to know that at a small cost the tailor at the little shop nearby will put on the collar and cuffs, which is always a bugbear to the inexperienced, and he will also press the garment. A heavy covert cloth or serge would look well made after this model, and the velvet should be of a darker shade than the material.

Of material forty-eight inches wide two yards and a half will be required for a girl twelve years of age.

A new sleeve will often make a dress presentable that otherwise must be discarded.

An underskirt that is outgrown can be lengthened either by a yoke at the top or a ruffle at the bottom.

If the skirt of the school dress has become short, there are three ways of lengthening it. Should there be tucks, let them out. Let down the hem and face the bottom. Make a belt an inch or two wide where the skirt and waist join.

Often a new yoke and cuffs will make a dress for all practical purposes new.

If rips and tears are mended at once it will save much time and patience.

To mend a dress that is worn under the arms, rip the sleeves loose from the dress well on either side of the under arm seams and set a new piece of the material neatly in the waist and sleeve. These pieces should be nicely pressed before again sewing the sleeve part.

A WARM WINTER SCHOOL COAT

In changing garments before ripping look them over and be sure it is not going to cost more to get sufficient materials with which to make them over than it would cost to buy new.

As a rule, women dislike having to shrink linen and cotton goods before making them up; they anticipate considerable labor in having to iron the material before it can be cut out, and often it ends in the garments being made without shrinking, which is bound to result disastrously. If the cotton or linen, whichever it may be, is left in the original folds and laid for a few hours in a bathtub, partly filled with water, then the water carefully squeezed, not wrung, out and hung on a line to dry, it will not be necessary to iron it. The material should be frequently turned, so that all parts will dry alike.

Few people know how to sponge a piece of woolen goods, and the majority of woolens are better for having been sponged, although some such as cashmere, henrietta, challis and veiling, do not require it. All goods known as cloths must be sponged, or they will not give satisfactory wear. To do this leave the original crease down the center and lay over the cloth pieces of thoroughly wet muslin. On an old broom handle or a slat from a bed roll the cloth, commencing at one end, and see as you roll that the whole inside surface is covered with the wet muslin. Allow the cloth to remain in this way for twenty-four hours, when it should be unrolled and hung over a line to dry.

Mobile, Oct. 22.—When two deputy sheriffs who were guarding Robert Clarke, a negro, in the jail of Jackson county, Mississippi, fell asleep, yesterday morning a mob of 300 masked men spirited the negro away mysteriously and hanged him to a telegraph pole near Lucedale. ROB STORE WITH CROWD NEAR.

Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 22.—A most daring burglary was committed here last night when unknown men cut out a part of the window of the T. J. The men escaped and there is no clew to their identity.

ROYAL FLUSH WAS BEATEN BY PAIR

HOW PITTSBURG BANK CLERKS WERE FLEECED.

Young Men Who Stole Near $400,000 Were Easy Marks for Gamblers and Bucket Shop Sharks.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—It was learned yesterday that the exact amount of money stolen from the Union Trust company of Pittsburg by Receiving Teller Wray and Bookkeeper Hixton was $385,000. District Attorney Stewart has begun an investigation which threatens to land others in the same penitentiary to which Wray and Hixton were sent Saturday. Already several well known gamblers and bucket shop keepers have left the city.

It is known that nearly every crook and gambler in the city got a bit of the immense sum of money stolen from the banking house of H. C. Frick and United States Senator Knox and that crooked games of every sort were framed for Wray and Hixton. In one game of poker in a downtown hotel a game arranged specially for Wray's benefit, the bank teller lost over $10,000. He lost $3,850 in one deal, though he held the invincible poker hand—a royal flush. Affairs were so manipulated that a pair of sixes beat Wray.

How the "Sure Thing" Worked.

The royal flush hand play was as follows:

Wray had the Ace, king, jack and ten of diamonds, with a black card when he "stald" in a jackpot. The player to his left raised the pot hard before the draw and an immense amount of money was put in before cards were drawn. Wray discarded his black card and drew to his four diamonds, giving him a "royal flush."

The gambler who had raised the pot before the draw took no cards and after Wray had bet heavily this man raised several thousand dollars. Wray, with his "royal flush," called the bet for all the money he had with him, making $3,850 he had in this one pot, threw his hand down face up on the table and began to rake in the thousands.

The gambler who had not drawn cards reached over, turned Wray's cards face down on the table, and spread them out, then called attention to the fact that one card was a "stranger," that the pattern on the back did not correspond with the other cards.

The "stranger" was the queen of diamonds, which had been dealt Wray, evidently from the top of another deck and it made his hand foul. All the money went to the other fellow, who had not drawn cards and who showed a pair of sixes.

This was but one of the many crooked games worked on the young men. It is openly asserted here that the credit of Wray and Hixton was good in some of the bucket shops where the wealth of a millionaire does not entitle him to credit. The young men were always forced to make good their losses of the previous day before they could deal again, and a sort of whip was held over their heads by the bucket shop people. If they did not pay up they would be exposed at the bank, and they always paid—though they had to get the money from the bank to do it.

It is promised in Pittsburg that there will be a general investigation and that several of the bucket shops will be forced to close, if, indeed, the owners are not indicted for conspiracy to defraud the big Union Trust company, by blackmailing employes, who were in their tolls and who they undoubtedly knew were not getting by any honest means the thousands spent daily.

HUSBAND OR WIFE TO LOSE JOB.

Washington, Oct. 22.—President Roosevelt has decided to eject from the government service the husband or wife where both are employed. He has called upon the civil service commission for a list of names of such employes. When this list has been furnished, under direction of the president, the husband and wife who are both upon Uncle Sam's pay roll will be given an opportunity to decide which shall remain and which shall resign. If no agreement is reached one or the other will be dismissed. The president will interpose no objection to the employment of women whose husbands are living but are not in the government service, nor will he attempt to regulate the number of members of any family who shall be given government employment further than to make it impossible for both the husband and wife to remain upon the pay rolls. It is estimated that in Washington alone there are at least 100 cases where both husband and wife are in the government service. In some instances the marital relations are secret and the wife appears upon the pay rolls under her maiden name.

ACCIDENT AT POWER HOUSE.

Roof Fell and Andrew Deal, a Carpenter, Was Slightly Injured.

Andrew Deal, a carpenter, employed by Contractor John Sneizer, was slightly injured about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in an accident at the new power house and a number of other workmen had narrow escapes from serious injury or death. A new portion of the roof, about twelve feet wide and constructed of cement, gave way as the men were walking almost directly beneath it and precipitated an avalanche of mortar and cement nearly upon them. Deal was hit on the shoulder by a piece of cement and slightly bruised and another carpenter received slight injuries.

MARKS ON HORSES.

In the language of horsemen, a white spot on the forehead is a star. A white face from eye to eye is a bald face. A strip between the nostril is a snip. A white eye is a glass eye. A horse has pasterns, not ankles, and there is no such point as a fore shoulder or hind knee. White around the top of the hoof is a coronet. White below the pastern or above is a white leg. Amble is a gait like pacing, but slower, in which the two legs on the same side are moved together. The croup is that part of the horse back of the saddle. The forearm is that part of the leg between the elbow and the knee, and the elbow is the joint of the foreleg next the knee and not to the side. When the horse forges it strikes the toe of the fore foot with the toe of the hind one; this is sometimes the result of bad shoeing. A "hand," a term used in describing the height of a horse, is four inches.

TWO WEEKS' MISSION BEGINS.

Yesterday morning the two weeks' mission at the St. Mary's Catholic church opened with solemn high mass. Father Boneventura, of Berlin, and Father Clement, of Brooklyn, both of whom are prominent Dominicans, will have charge of the meetings. The forty hours' devotion at St. Patrick's church closed yesterday evening in the presence of a large congregation. The sermons were preached by Rev. Richard Cartwright, a Paulist missionary of Chicago. Next Sunday Bishop Alerding will confirm classes at New Haven, Besancon and Monroeville.

RAISING CALIFORNIA TURKEYS.

Turkey herds are means of livelihood for a great many families in the Sacramento valley of California. Turkeys are raised in herds of from 500 to 3,000 birds, valued from $2 to $3 apiece. A drove of 3,000 turkeys is more difficult to manage than a flock of 3,000 sheep, for a turkey is a wanderer, a drifter and a tramp. The only way to keep the bird healthy and plump is to let it drift. The turkey herder merely follows the flock with his shepherd dogs and in a general way directs the course of the bunch.

THREE FIRES SUNDAY.

At 9:27 Sunday morning the fire department was called to the residence of C. J. Weber, 230 Brackenridge street, to extinguish a blaze which started from a furnace. The loss was $50. The house is owned by Mrs. Summers.

The roof of the residence of E. A. Sallot, 2027 Lafayette street, caught fire about 8 o'clock from sparks from the chimney and the department was called to extinguish the blaze. The loss was $10.

The residence at 206 Brooklyn avenue, occupied by Mrs. Hedges and owned by the Pennsylvania company, caught fire about noon from a gasoline stive explosion. The loss was nominal.

MAKING VEAL QUICKLY.

A hired man, whose time was not his own, made a cow as profitable as those of his employer by vealing calves upon it and letting them do their own milking. As soon as the first was salable for veal it was replaced by one not over three days old. A calf of that age could be bought for almost nothing from a dairyman, who much preferred the milk it consumed.

Had he invested in a registered cow instead of common stock, one calf raised in this way would probably have netted him as much as the three veal calves, and he would still have saved the labor of milking.

This method of letting the calves run with the cows is a popular one with the large breeders; and while experiments show that better results follow from hand feeding there are cases, as the one cited, where this is impracticable and a resourceful man can make money on the farm, though he must vary his methods to suit the conditions.

S.S.S. RIDS THE SYSTEM OF MALARIA

The healthy color of the skin is given to it by the millions of little red corpuscles in the blood. These are the carriers of nourishment, health and strength to all parts of the body—in other words the very life of the blood. When the germs of Malaria get into this vital fluid they destroy these corpuscles and rob the blood of its rich, lifes-ustaining qualities, rendering it thin, weak and watery and unable to supply the system with the needed strength to resist disease. Then the symptoms of Malaria such as pale, sallow complexions, weak vitality, poor appetite, deranged digestion, a general "let down" condition of the system, and perhaps chills and slight fever, show that this insidious disease is gradually affecting the entire health. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation, and the medicine to accomplish this is S. S. S. It not only cleanses the blood of all impure, unhealthy matter, but rids the system of Malaria, and restores the blood to a strong, healthy condition. S. S. S., besides removing the germs of Malaria, builds up and gives tone and vigor to the entire system by its fine tonic effects. Malaria is a blood disease, and S. S. S. cures it because it is a perfect blood purifier. Book on the blood and any medical advice without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

NOT A VESTIGE OF OLD TOWN REMAINS

EARLY INDIANA SETTLEMENT IS OBLITERATED.

Birthplace of Governor Morton Near Richmond is Now But a Pioneer Memory.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—Lost as completely as any city of prehistoric times, with no sign, no mark, no hidden dungeons, no crumbling ruins to invite speculation as to what it once was, is the once thriving city of Salisbury, Ind. A little less than a century ago it was the leading town of Wayne county and one of the most prosperous of eastern Indiana. From 1810 until 1820 it was the seat of justice of Wayne county. Now there is not even a farmhouse where the town stood. Only a country road, once the main street of the town, and a quiet creek mark the site of Salisbury.

Salisbury was founded at the beginning of the nineteenth century and was the first settlement in Wayne county, Indiana territory. Romantic tradition says that its location was the trysting place of Indian lovers surprised by a band of pioneers and both killed in an attempted capture. Although regretting the unnecessary tragedy, the frontiersmen gazed with admiration at the natural beauty of the scene and thereupon founded a village, with the curse of the old Indian mother ringing in their ears, that the town should not live, but would disappear from the face of the earth.

Prospects Were Good.

In 1811 a court house was built and as a necessary complement a jail. Dwellings were rapidly constructed, stores were opened, churches built and Salisbury became an important trading center. The pioneers believed Salisbury was destined to become a city of importance in the new country. Before Indiana was admitted to the union in 1816 several hundred people were proud to call Salisbury home.

It was about this time that the first clerk and recorder of Wayne county wrote these words on the back of the original plot: "The town of Salisbury stands on a beautiful site on the west of Clear creek, Wayne county, Indiana territory, in a fine neighborhood, environed by rich land, no better water in the world, the air salubrious, and its elevated station commands an extensive and beautiful prospect. And we flatter ourselves that in a few years art and her sister, industry, will court it from a forest to a flourishing inland town."

Not a Vestige Remains.

For a time it seemed that the dream of the court official would come true. Brick buildings replaced frame ones and log cabins, dressed lumber appeared and all seemed to prosper. But the progress and growth were only for a time. In 1820 the county seat was moved from Salisbury to Centerville, where it remained until 1873, when it was removed to Richmond. The loss of the county seat was the beginning of the end. The population began to dwindle, and, strange to say, the town itself shrank in proportion, for with the removal of a family down came its habitation and piecemeal accompanied its former occupants to their new abode to be erected again.

Log by log, timber by timber and brick by brick Salisbury scattered to the four winds until in 1826 there remained but a dozen families and in a few years these, too, departed and not a human being lived at the former county seat.

For many years some of the old houses remained, but slowly, irresistibly nature claimed her own and today nothing remains but fertile ground on either side of the road which was once the main street. No disaster hurried the untimely end of Salisbury. It came and went by the hand of man.

About two and a half miles west of Richmond a road running north and south crosses the old National road. In this cross-road about one-quarter of a mile south of the old National road was the northern boundary of Salisbury.

Salisbury was the birthplace of a number of men who in later years became prominent figures in the affairs of county and state. The greatest of these was Oliver P. Morton, war governor of Indiana. When the county seat was moved to Centerville Morton's parents located there.

A Remarkable Change

If you should suddenly be confronted by a person that you always believed was subject to a so-called incurable disease, and found that the features and form had taken on so much flesh that the entire personality was changed, you would say that it was very remarkable.

This is exactly what happended to Mrs. Chas. McKenzie, 405 Salome avenue, Springfield, Ill. For years she was but a mere shadow, suffering from a complication of stomach, liver and kidney disease, and it is with difficulty that the friends and acquaintances recognize her today. Quaker Herb Extract, a simple, logical, vegetable compound, extracted from herbs, roots, barks, berries, leaves and blossoms, accomplished this change in her.

This remedy is not new. It has been prepared for years and acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, reaching the seat of the disease and expelling from the system all impurities and disease germs in a mild and natural manner.

This medicine has proven all claims made for it by the Great Dunn. Quaker Herb Extract is for sale by your local druggist.

THE LITTLE-AT-A-TIME STORE

People of Judgment

Seem to appreciate our broad challenge to bring the advertisement or the catalogue of any furniture establishment on earth with the firm understanding and agreement over our own signature, that anything contained therein—any article described—any price named will be duplicated here, as good, or better for the same money—or for less.

We go beyond this matter of price, however, to emphasize the fact that this is the store of quality and challenge the world to show better furniture. We have a standing order with the world's best cabinet makers to deliver the newest, the best, the most artistic, as quickly as the new styles are issued.

And yet another feature which is bringing fame and friends to the Fort Wayne Outfitters Co.—the easiest, most convenient, most satisfactory credit terms on earth.

A Popular Offering

To encourage housekeeping, to facilitate and assist beginners, we furnish a small home or cottage completely—the kitchen, the dining room, the bedroom, the parlor—not a single detail is neglected, fine goods at minimum cost. The bed and the bedding, mattress, springs, pillows, the floor coverings—such as are appropriate for the respective rooms.

$148 Oilcloth for the kitchen—Carpets for the other rooms—Pictures, Lace Curtains, Draperies—a small price to be comfortably, substantially furnished.

AND WHAT'S MORE, the cash isn't necessary—$15.00 down and $8.00 per month—if that is convenient.

A Hot Blast Air Tight FLORENCE

Burns soft coal and slack, and consumes its own smoke—no filling up of the stove pipe or flue with soot—no dirt outside or inside the house. It will burn hard coal—it will burn wood—it will burn sawdust, wet or dry—it will produce one-half less ashes than any other stove on earth, with any kind of fuel and it leaves no clinkers nor half consumed fuel. It's the Best, yet Cheapest.

Another shipment which we trust will supply the unprecedented demand. This Sanitary Couch forms a double bed at night—during the day converted into an ornamental couch with a pad and couch cover. There isn't much money in selling these splendidly constructed sanitary couches for $3.25, but the Fort Wayne Outfitters Co. relies upon profits by selling great quantities. Our chain of stores is taking the entire supply of the factory from which these are obtained.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 22.—Vigorous recovery from Saturday's slump in prices marked the opening dealings on the stock exchange. The strength of the London market helped to this result and rumors from abroad pointed to a large loan of gold by the Bank of France to the Bank of England. The strongest rallies were in stocks which suffered most in Saturday's break. Sales of 2,500 shares of Union Pacific were made at 183 and 182½ compared with 181 on Saturday. Anaconda rose 2¼. Great Northern preferred 3, Reading, Northern Pacific and Southern Pacific 1¾, Baltimore & Ohio, St. Paul, Canadian Pacific, Pennsylvania, Amalgamated Copper and Sugar 1¾ to 1⅞ and Louisville & Nashville, Erie, Brooklyn Transit, Smelting and Distillers Securities about a point.

Confidence in the stable character of the advance was strengthened by the readiness with which the market took the selling to realize. Only a slight impression was made on prices by the selling, and the market subsequently went considerably higher than at the opening. All of the usual leaders scored handsomely, and there were a number of substantial advances in many minor stocks. Pullman jumped 5 points, Anaconda 4, Reading 2¾, St. Paul 2¼, Lead, Distillers Securities and International Pump 2, the smelting stocks, Consolidated Gas and Canadian Pacific 1¾ to 1¾, Atchison 1½, Colorado Fuel and Cotton Oil 1¼ and Ontario & Western, Atlantic Coast Line, United States Steel, United States Rubber first preferred, Pressed Steel Car and Locomotive 1.

Call money fell back to 6 per cent after opening at 7, Friday's highest rate. New buying orders poured into the market after a period of hesitation and prices were carried to a substantially higher level. Anaconda's gain reached 7, Pullman 6½, Great Northern preferred 5, Reading, Northern Pacific and Canadian Pacific 3½, Union Pacific 3, St. Paul 2¾, National Lead 2½ and Southern Pacific, Atchison, Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio, Delaware & Hudson, Northwestern, Amalgamated Copper, Smelting and Colorado Fuel 2 to 2¾. The market was quiet with some recovery at noon. Bonds were firm.

The failure of a board member contributed somewhat to the dullness and lower prices prevailed after 12 o'clock. St. Paul and Amalgamated Copper reacted nearly a point. Prices commenced to recede and Union Pacific touched 184½, the highest.

Higher prices were obtained for the Hill and Harriman stocks during the latter part of the afternoon, but the rest of the list was not essentially changed, although the tendency was upward.

The closing was quiet but strong near the highest level. The market gathered force for another upward flight of prices in the final hour, when call money was offered down to the nearly normal rate. The gains were substantially extended all around. Great Northern preferred rose an extreme 7, Northern Pacific and Reading, 4½, Delaware & Hudson 4, Anaconda 3½, Colorado Southern, Amalgamated Copper, Smelting and United States Rubber first preferred 3⅛ to 3¾, Sugar 2¾, Colorado Fuel 2⅝ and United States Steel, 3⅝.

Day's Happenings in the Industrial World

NEW NIGHT YARDMASTER.

W. J. Westrop Retires and C. J. Pfleidner Succeeds Him.

On account of night work being injurious to his health, W. J. Westrop asked to be relieved from the position of night yardmaster of the east yards of the Pennsylvania and his request has been granted. This morning he assumed charge of a switching engine and crew at day times and C. J. Pfleidner becomes night yardmaster. Mr. Pfleidner has been in the employ of the company for a number of years and for for some time has been assistant night yardmaster.

IMMENSE FREIGHT TONNAGE.

Trunk Lines Have More Freight Than They Can Handle.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—There promises to be no diminution in traffic for the next year if business expansion keeps on the way it is at present. The present tonnage is the largest of any year in the history of the western roads, and was never so diversified. The manufactures of the industries all over the country are contributing to the earnings of the roads in a way which surprises officials. There is no product but what is moving in larger volume than had been expected except grain, but this will move in time and traffic men are apparently not anxious to see it come forward from the farms in a heavy volume for some time. In fact they would much rather see it held back on the farms so that they could get the benefit of commodities paying higher revenue rates.

It would be an impossibility for the roads to haul the grain which will be marketed before the year rounds out if there should be a sudden disposition on the part of the farmer to market his cereals. There are not cars enough and the railroad people do not know how they are going to get them. If they had them they do not know how they could handle the number required to meet business exigencies, owing to lack of yard facilities and tracks. The railroads were never up against a proposition like the present.

Some railroad officials were inclined to believe they would have a falling off in tonnage when the farmers got into the field to do their fall work, but nothing of the sort has happened. Manufactured products have increased if anything, and merchants from the interior are just as eager as ever to buy goods, and they report prompt and easy payment for everything they take into the country.

Grain receipts at Chicago, all kinds, last week amounted to 6,179,392 bushels, an increase of 209,801 bushels over the week before, but they were 732,440 bushels less than the same week last year.

OFFICIALLY NOTIFIED.

Local Ticket Agents Have Received New Rate Sheets.

The new passenger rates compiled by the Central Passenger association and based on a 2½c rate through all the eastern states and a 2c rate through Ohio were received in this city yesterday. The new rates will go into effect November 1st and the local agents are putting in their spare time familiarizing themselves with them, as the fare to every station on the lines will be changed, and what is welcome news to the traveling public, the change in every case is a reduction. Since the passage of the 2c per mile law in Ohio, the railroads have been charging the regular fare of three cents per mile to points in and through Ohio. Many people, however, to take advantage of the Ohio law, would purchase a ticket to the state line and then pay the 2c rate through Ohio. The new tariff will enable the agents to sell tickets to any station at a 2½c rate through Indiana, Pennsylvania and New York and 2c rate in Ohio territory. As an example of what the new rates mean to the public the present rate to Cleveland is $5.60 and the new rate will be $3.85. Rates to all other points are cut proportionately.

ORDER FOR CABIN CARS.

Instructions have been placed with the heads of departments at the Pennsylvania shop to make requisitions for twenty cabin cars of the "NE" type. It will probably be several weeks before the material will be received and construction work on the cars taken up.

NOT APPLICABLE TO PENNSY.

Passenger Traffic Manager Hanson, of the Illinois Central, is of the opinion that the general public considers it of more importance to have trains that reach their destination on time, though they are scheduled slowly, than to have fast trains that are frequently late in reaching their destination. "A train keyed to its best has no chance to make up time lost in delays incident to a trip," he says, "consequently time lost is seldom regained. If a road is not in physical condition to make over forty miles an hour, its trains should be scheduled at thirty-five miles an hour. The average passenger would prefer to use a train of ordinary speed with the assurance that it would be on time at its destination than to take a faster train with no assurance that it will reach the station he is bound for on time." Mr. Hanson's theory probably applies correctly to the Illinois Central road, but it is not applicable to the Pennsylvania, where the fastest trains in the world are on time at their terminals 95 times out of 100 trips.

NEW BOND ISSUE.

Wabash Stockholders Authorize New Four Per Cent Paper.

Toledo, O., Oct. 22.—At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Wabash Railroad company here today arrangements were made for an issue of 4 per cent fifty-year refunding mortgage bonds and all its notes and equipment obligations, the remainder to be used for betterments of property, extensions and equipment. The stockholders also authorized an increase of the capital stock of the company by the amount of $16,500,000. The meeting was largely attended and its action was harmonious.

WESTERN DIVISION SECOND BEST

L. M. Berlin, one of the road supervisors on the Western division of the Pennsylvania, was awarded the second prize, $50, by the inspection party for having the second best piece of track on the lines west of Pittsburg. The first prize, $100, was given to Supervisor F. J. McCarthy, of the Logansport division of the Southwest system. The announcement of the names of the winners was made immediately after the arrival of the inspection party at Pittsburg last Saturday evening. Prizes to section foremen will also be given, but the names of the fortunate ones will not be announced for several days.

The separator has come to stay, because it is a good and economical instrument for the farmer. Too frequently, however, this privilege of lighter work and less frequent delivery has been abused. Sour and decomposed food will not make growth in a hog any more than in a man, and is apt to produce disease.

There will be many boars sold at the big fairs this fall. Be sure you get a perfectly sound animal. Buy your boar on a guarantee. When you receive him, keep him separated from your herd for at least two weeks, until you are certain he has no disease.

If its a good thing Seavey's have it

A Warm Suggestion

A small heating stove that can be fired with a little wood now and then is lots better than keeping a furnace fired up during these days when it is chilly but not really cold. It will save a great deal in fuel, be easier to regulate and can be readily taken down and stored when not wanted. A furnace isn't a complete heating outfit. Our Wilson Air Tight is just the stove you want to do this work satisfactorily, and the price is only $6.50. That is certainly a good investment. An ounce of reality is worth a pound of romance, and the reality of our advertised values is usually recognized.
